

Global UGRAD

What is it ?

Global Undergraduate Exchange Program

Description

The Global UGRAD Program is a semester-long academic exchange program in which students from over 60 countries study at various universities in the United States. It is an opportunity for students to experience academic and social life on U.S. campuses, strengthen their leadership skills, and gain a greater global perspective.

World Learning
Education | Development | Exchange

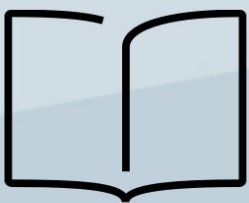

Learn More & Apply

www.worldlearning.org/ugrad

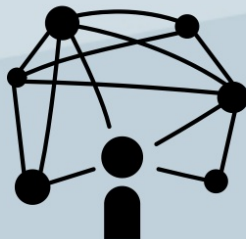

Deadline: 5:00pm EST December 31st, 2016

Eligibility

- Must have finished at least 1 semester of college
- Must have 1+ semester(s) remaining upon return
- Must be 18+ in age at time of program start
- Must be enrolled full time in home country
- Must have adequate English skills
- Cannot be a U.S. citizen, including dual citizenship
- Students with disabilities are encouraged to apply

Study in the United States

Build a Network

Meet New People

Develop New Skills